Policies

Withdrawal and Refunds:

You may withdraw from a course 14+ days prior to the first class and receive a 100% refund. You will receive a 50% refund if you withdraw within 2 weeks of class starting. If you withdraw within 1 week prior to the first class, no refund will be given. There are no refunds once a class begins. If River Tree Arts cancels a course, you will receive a 100% refund in the same form as the original payment was made or choose to be issued a credit towards a future class (credit must be used within one year of issue).

Cancellations:

- River Tree Arts reserves the right to cancel any camps or classes that do not have a minimum number of 4 students, depending on the course being offered. Students will be notified at least 72 hours in advance. If River Tree Arts cancels a course, you will receive a 100% refund in the same form as the original payment was made.
- If RSU 21 closes due to inclement weather, all group classes and private music lessons will be canceled. If RSU 21 has early dismissal, there will be no after school classes or private lessons. Make ups will be scheduled by the end of the session.
- River Tree Arts reserves the right to cancel courses, substitute instructors, change course times, and limit enrollment. Every attempt will be made to run after school classes in the event the primary instructor is not available: this includes substitute teachers and/or changing the class theme for the day.

Off site- Consent:

- During snack/lunch break or recreation time, students may have the option to spend supervised time outside. If you do not want your child to partake in these activities, kindly notify the front desk and note that on this form.
- Students will be escorted to the Lower Village Park located at 159 Port Road (off Route 35), Lower Village, Kennebunk , ME 04043 under the supervision of River Tree Arts staff at all times.
- We request that all students have waterproof sunscreen liberally applied before coming to camps or classes where students may be outside for all or part of the class, snack time or recess.

Allergies:

- Our student's safety is one of our highest priorities. The Parent/Guardian is responsible for communicating allergen information to River Tree staff at the time of enrollment and registration, prior to the start of class.
- If your child has any food allergies, please provide River Tree with an emergency medical plan of action to follow in the event of an accident / emergency. Students with food allergies should bring their own snacks and lunches.
- River Tree Arts is a nut-free facility. Please refrain from sending in snacks or lunches that contain nut products.
- Please make sure that any emergency contact information is up to date and accurate in our system.
- 911 Policy: In all cases and circumstances, River Tree Arts will call 911 and Staff/Faculty will abide by and follow all EMS/911 instructions during a medical emergency concerning your child. The Parent/Guardian will be notified by River Tree Arts Staff at the earliest opportunity.

Medical Conditions:

- We understand that some campers have medical conditions so please notify us at the time of registration to ensure we can provide everyone with a safe and fun experience.
- 911 Policy: In all cases and circumstances, River Tree Arts will call 911 and Staff/Faculty will abide by and follow all EMS/911 instructions during a medical emergency concerning your child. The Parent/Guardian will be notified by River Tree Arts Staff at the earliest opportunity.

Covid-19:

RTA will follow all procedures and protocols consistent with the COVID 19 Safe Opening Requirements. RTA will continually monitor guidance provided by the CDC regarding youth and child care programs. Students are required to wear masks at all times and practice safe social distancing. If a reasonable modification or alteration in this policy is necessary to accommodate a particular student, please contact Cathryn Majorossy (cathryn@rivertreearts.org) to discuss exemptions. Please be aware that exemptions are only granted in exceptional and limited circumstances. Students without an approved exemption from the requirement to wear a mask will be warned and caregivers will be notified for failure to follow safety protocols. RTA reserves the right to suspend any student who continuously violates these safety protocols. Any such suspension shall be imposed for whatever length of time RTA in its sole discretion deems appropriate and no refunds will be provided.
